

I oppose the Sinclair Broadcast Group's decision to require public stations to air a partisan one opinion "show" just before the national election. The station's are public access and therefore should be local opinion of national politics. There is a enormous problem when a broadcast owner requires a local public access station to air an opinion program as if it is local opinion